

you are invited

coast salish ground blessing ceremony

Back alley of REACH, 1145 Commercial Dr.

Sat. Oct. 29th 10:30 am

REACH Community Health Centre is anticipating a move back to our brand new building on Commercial Drive this spring.

In support of the Truth and Reconciliation Commission's "Calls to Action", and out of respect for our community, we will hold a Coast Salish Blessing Ceremony to acknowledge that we are on unceded Coast Salish territory.

In attendance will be community members, staff, guests, and representatives from the local Indigenous community. The blessing begins at 10:30am, followed by an Elder's prayer, some words from REACH and our important guests.

Following the ceremony we will have refreshments at the Britannia 55+ Centre.

For more info, contact Dexter McMillan:
604-254-5456 ext. 246
dmcmillan@reachcentre.bc.ca

This event is connected to a larger project REACH has initiated, the 'Circles of Wellbeing.'

Over the next 18 months, the 'Circles of Wellbeing' project will foster cross-cultural sharing, and reconciliation between youth and seniors/ Elders from local Indigenous, immigrant and refugee communities.

This community-building effort will contribute to a deeper sense of belonging and wellbeing for participants and our community.

All our relations.

REACH
Community Health Centre

Celebrating nearly 50 years of community health in community hands.